

VIVIAN SINCLAIR

Investigative Journalist

INVESTIGATIVE ABILITIES

- Accounting
- Assess Honesty
- Bargain
- Bureaucracy
- Cryptography
- Evidence Collection
- Flattery
- History
- Inspiration
- Locksmith
- Oral History
- Photography
- Reassurance
- Research
- Streetwise

GENERAL ABILITIES

- Athletics
- Cool
- Disguise
- Driving
- Fighting
- Fileh
- First Aid
- Fleeing
- Preparedness
- Sense Trouble
- Shadowing
- Stability
- Stealth

STORY

Pad and pencil in hand, journalist Vivian Sinclair tracks down leads, grills witnesses, and turns in hair-raising stories of corruption, crime, and parts of the city's underbelly most would rather not see. Where a detective sees a case, Viv sees a story. She'll follow it relentlessly to its conclusion, even putting her life in danger to get at the truth.

SOURCES

- ASTELLE "STELLA" ABRAMS, Amateur Occultist Despite her apparent religious frivolity, she never discards books the way she does beliefs and can be called upon for theological as well as occult questions.
 Architecture, Craft, Cthulhu Mythos, Occult, Theology

---

- LT. JOSEPH O'CONNOR, Detective He stood out to Viv as an honest man trying to do the right thing even if it jeopardized his future with the department, or even his life.
 Cop Talk, Forensics, Intimidation, Law, Streetwise

---

- ESTEBAN MANUEL ARAGON GONZALEZ, Explorer The son of Cuban immigrants, who discovered a passion for archaeology. He's happy to hazard the cultural history of a peculiar idol Viv's discovered, or identify a strange set of tracks.
 Anthropology, Archaeology, Art History, Geology, Outdoorsman

---

- LOUISA REYNOLDS, Nurse While neither a psychiatrist nor a doctor, she's absorbed a vast practical knowledge of medicine, pharmacy, and psychology through her work and self-education.
 Medicine, Pharmacy, Psychology

---

- ANNETTE "NETTIE" RICE, Professor The kindly, tweed-clad woman who taught Viv Natural Science course managed to make the subjects interesting but didn't woo her into the sciences.
 Astronomy, Biology, Chemistry, Languages, Physics